One of the horses that tug about the sun for Mr. Apollo must have become uncontrollable yesterday afternoon and kicked over the watering trough somewhere above Danville, for a sudden downpour happened at that time and as if directed by an evil hand, vented its worst fury at Danville just before the game scheduled with Richmond. Perhaps the Tobaccoists did not offer proper libations to the gods, or perhaps they did and the rain came down from the clouds in defeat. But, anyway, it rained, and the drops that chased each other about the diamond made the ground so muddy that the battle was unfought.

Hence the disappointment in fandom and the stationary condition of the Lawmakers' percentage.

The last of the series in Danville is slated for today, and then the Tobaccoists come here to play the last three days of this week.

Sparks, who was recently suspended, has been practicing at Second Street Park this week, and will probably be reinstated in time to pitch against Danville. A new catcher, who is said to be a good one, is expected here shortly to be tried out on the local team. Both management and players claim that peace reigns in the Lawmakers' camp, and that very man is to win the pennant. Manager Lewis is popular with his team, and he is counted on by the local fans to steer the Richmond squad to victory.

PENDER AND GOO- GOO CHASED OUT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., May 19.—Norfolk was clearly outclassed to-day by the Trunkers, who hit Carroll freely and won the second game of the series by the score of 6 to 2. The stick work of the Trunkers was led by Gnadinger, and three of his runs were earned. Carter pitched an excellent game, holding the Tars to three hits, but he was benched in the fifth, and on top of an error, gave the Crew three runs.

The Crew was not satisfied with the work of O'Neil, and set up a steady kick. Pender was benched and finally excluded from the grounds. Goo-Goo, the famous rooster, was also required to leave the grandstand. He is a Norfolk enthusiast, the score:

Outclass Boynton.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BOYNTON, VA., May 19.—The Boynton High School defeated Boynton Saturday by the score of 14 to 0. The features of the game were two home runs, knocked by Hinderling and G. Pleasant, of the High School, and the good playing and batting of the whole High School team.

LYNCHBURG, VA., May 19.—Pitcher Wallace, of Bristol, who was given a trial by the local team, was released to-day in order that the team might come within the limit of thirteen players.

FOUR STRAIGHT FOR HIGHLANDERS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., May 19.—The Shoemakers played a listless game to-day, and were beaten again by Roadhouse, this making four straight defeats at the hands of the Tigers on the local grounds without a victory, and in the twenty-four hours the Shoemakers dropped from second to next to last place. Stewart pitched a game that should have won, but the opportunist hits were missing. Roadhouse won the game in the third, after chances had been lost to retire the side, Hagdale hitting to center, scoring two men. After the fourth Stewart did not allow a hit, and on one did the visitors reach third after that inning. In the fifth the Shoemakers came out of their lethargy and escaped a shut-out, but the first was strong enough to pull the game out of the fire.

W. & L. ROSES TO GEORGIA SQUAD

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ATLANTA, GA., May 19.—Washington and Lee lost to Georgia to-day at the Ponce de Leon Park by the close score of 3 to 1. Georgia, for the visitors, pitched a usual good game, allowing Georgia but six scattered hits, while Washington and Lee got seven off Harmon. Georgia kept her seven runs in the fourth after two were down, on a service hit, with two errors. Washington and Lee had three men on bases in the ninth with two down and Brown at the bat, but Harmon purposely walked him, thus forcing in one run. Mr. Woodward, who umpired the game, was way off in several of his decisions, which proved costly to Washington and Lee, especially in the fourth. Both teams clash again to-morrow. The score:

CANOE MEETING.

At a general meeting the members of the Opecan-Canoe Club will gather at the Jefferson Hotel to-night for the purpose of putting in operation the plans already adopted and for the election of new members. An invitation is extended to all interested in canoeing or desiring information.

The club will be provided for by a bond issue, the organization renting the house from the holders at a rent which insures the holders of 10 per cent. investment; and the bonds are being eagerly taken up. The club is to have the privilege of taking up the stock at any time, thus leaving the entire receipts of the first year for boats and equipment.

The officers of the new club are John D. Murrell, president; Edward S. Evans, vice-president; J. G. Hankins, secretary and treasurer. The executive committee is composed of the above officers and C. W. Bowers, Robert L. Snead, R. O. Bell, Cabell Fitzgerald, Lewis N. Little, C. C. Chapin and Stewart Michaux.
